Trailer for Screen Locked launched

By Shazia Hasan

KARACHI: Acclaimed film star and British Independent Film Awards nominee Alyy Khan and award-winning filmmaker Khalid Hasan Khan have announced the official launch of the key visual assets for their latest project, the penetrating 30-minute psychological thriller short film, Screen Locked.

The team released the official poster and an intense first-look trailer at the Adab Festival over the weekend as the film begins its submission journey to global film festivals.

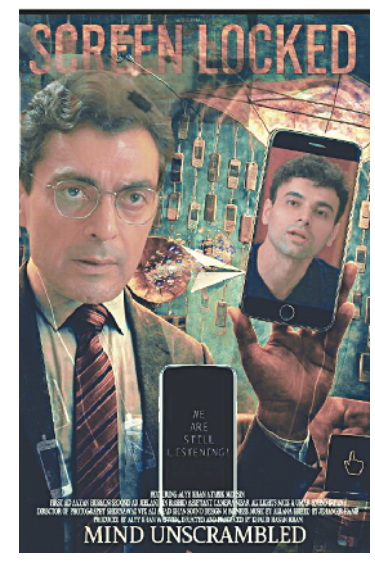
The official poster is a visually arresting collage featuring the lead actor Alyy Khan as the intense Dr T.R. Mavani alongside rising talent Atabik Mohsin as the withdrawn teenager Addy. The artwork juxtaposes the analog world of a therapy room with ubiquitous digital devices, dominated by the film's ominous tagline: 'Mind Unscrambled'. The central visual motif of a smartphone screen locking the characters in a visual loop perfectly encapsulates the film's core themes: "Addicted. Observed. Controlled. Welcome to your reflection."

The released trailer provides a visceral look into the film's intense narrative. It transports audiences to a dimly lit therapy room where Dr Mavani, a maverick specialist in Digital Addiction Therapy, confronts his digitally narcissistic patient. The footage hints at a powerful, claustrophobic atmosphere, showcasing Dr Mavani employing a blend of Freudian and Jungian psychometric tools and subtle provocations to dismantle Addy's digital defences.

The trailer promises a techno-thriller flavour, teasing the presence of a mysterious digital nemesis set to roil the road to recovery.

Written, directed and produced by Khalid Hasan Khan, and produced by Alyy Khan, Screen Locked is a timely and intense examination of the modern screen-addiction crisis.

The film is currently being submitted to film festivals globally and promises to be one of the most provocative psychological thrillers in the genre.



Woman killed in firing by 'fleeing robbers' in Nazimabad

KARACHI: A woman was killed when she was hit by a bullet while travelling in a taxi along with her family in the Nazimabad area, police said on Monday.

Central SSP Zeeshan Shafiq Siddiqi said two robbers riding a motorcycle resorted to firing on a street near Annu Bhai Park at around 10pm on Sunday. As a result, one of the bullets hit Samina, 35, who was seated in the back seat of the taxi.

While her husband, mother-in-law and three children remained unhurt, the woman sustained a critical bullet wound in the face and was taken to the Abbasi Shaheed Hospital (ASH), where she died during treatment in the small hours of Monday morning.

The SSP hinted at the possibility that the killers might be robbers who were fleeing a crime scene.

He said that no attempted robbery incident had taken place with the family.

On Monday, the Nazimabad police registered a murder case against unknown persons on the complaint of the victim's husband, Mohammad Adnan, a resident of Tauheed Colony in Orangi Town.

Meanwhile, a suspected robber was gunned down in the Korangi Industrial Area on Monday.

Korangi SSP Fida Husain Janwari ruled out the possibility of a robbery bid as the killers attempted to give it a colour of robbery by taking away the victim's bike.

The police said Niaz Ahmed was standing at a hairdresser's shop near his home in Gulzar Colony when armed pillion riders shot and killed him.

The SSP said that after killing him, the suspects took away his bike. They did not attempt to snatch anything from him. He said the deceased was himself involved in the lifting of motorcycles. —Staff Reporter

PAC clarifies Benazir Chair at KU 'functional'

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI: The Public Accounts Committee (PAC) of the Sindh Assembly has clarified that in its meeting held on Nov 18 to review the audit reports of Karachi University from 2021 to 2023, it asked about non-completion of the Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Chair and Convention Centre, and not Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Chair which is functional.

A spokesman for PAC Chairman Nisar Khuhro said that KU officials were asked to explain the non-functionality of the 'Benazir Chair and Convention Centre' and why the project had not been completed.

Terming it a 'human error', the spokesman said that the word 'Convention Centre' was inadvertently not made part of the proceedings, giving an impression as if the 'Benazir Chair' was not functional.

He said that the question was asked specifically about the functionality and completion of the 'Benazir Chair and Convention Centre', which had not been completed despite the passage of many years.

Also, responding to a news item, headlined 'Benazir Bhutto Chair set up 13 years ago at KU still non-functional, PAC told', published in Dawn on Nov 20, the director of the Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Chair stated that the Chair was fully functional and the work on the Convention Centre was stalled. He said that the Chair, established in 2008, had been fully operational since then.

Crackdown on fake, illegal number plates from Dec 5

KARACHI: City police chief Javed Alam Odho has ordered a crackdown from Dec 5 on vehicles using fake, illegal or unidentifiable number plates across the city.

In a statement issued on Monday, he urged citizens to get their vehicle and motorcycle number plates corrected and made fully compliant with the law by Dec 5.

He warned that after the deadline, legal action will be taken without exception and non-compliant vehicles will be seized.

Man shot dead

A 60-year-old man was gunned down in Quaidabad area on Monday.

Police said that Mohammad Razzaq was sitting at a shop near his home when armed assailants resorted to indiscriminate firing and rode away. He sustained three bullet wounds in the head and died on the spot.

Area SHO Inayatullah Marwat said the victim originally hailed from Swat.

He said the murder appeared to be an outcome of some personal enmity.

The body was shifted to the Jinnah Postgraduate Medical Centre for medico-legal formalities. —Staff Reporter
